

Project Title: AGRIPREDICT

Group Members: Anam Imam(UL-BSCSM-B-23-46)

Natasha Akram (UL-BSCSM-B-23-38)

Project Description:

Smart Agriculture is an AI-powered mobile application designed to support farmers by providing intelligent farming solutions. The app enables users to detect crop diseases through image analysis and access real-time weather forecasts based on location. By integrating machine learning and external APIs, the system helps improve crop health, increase productivity, and support better decision-making in modern farming practices.